Workshops and events
Community users of the Library are welcome to attend public and special events at our branches and at the Irving K. Barber Learning Centre. Events happen year-round – find out the latest details by visiting events.library.ubc.ca

Webcasts
You don’t need to leave your office or home to watch webcasts of past lectures and seminars. A selection of webcasts is available through the Irving K. Barber Learning Centre, combining high-quality learning and research-based topics. View a variety of webcasts at: ikebarberlearningcentre.ubc.ca

Library Tours
For tours of the Library, contact Library Communications at library.communications@ubc.ca

Filming and photography requests
Permission is required for filming or photography at UBC. This includes any commercial or student productions taking place throughout the UBC Library system, including the Irving K. Barber Learning Centre.

For questions about filming on-campus, or about guidelines for filming on campus, please visit the Supply Management website.

For filming/photography requests and inquiries within the Library, please direct requests to Library Communications at library.communications@ubc.ca

Off-Campus Libraries
BIOMEDICAL BRANCH LIBRARY, Vancouver
OKANAGAN LIBRARY, Kelowna library.ok.ubc.ca

UBC Library COMMUNITY GUIDE

Visit hours.library.ubc.ca for current hours, maps and more.
Getting started at UBC Library

Visit the Library
Whether you are on campus for a day or just stopping by, the Library has much for you to explore. As the second-largest research library in Canada, our collections include more than 7.8 million items. From the exceptional Chung Collection exhibition, to artwork in the Irving K. Barber Learning Centre, to guest access for computers and electronic resources, there is something for everyone.

Your Library card
People unaffiliated with UBC who wish to borrow Library materials or use fee-based Library services such as interlibrary loan may be eligible for one of the following Library Cards:

- Community Borrower Cards for individual members of the public
- Institutional Borrower Cards for businesses, corporations and government departments
- UBC community cards: anyone with a C+CP Community Services Card receives free library access upon validation at Koerner Library.
- Guest access: On campus for just the day? You can use guest-access computers to access unrestricted resources: resources.library.ubc.ca. Please note that remote access to most online resources is restricted.

How to sign-up for a card
- Apply in person at Walter C. Koerner Library or at the Okanagan Library in Kelowna.
- Library cards are $40 for a 4-month pass or $120 per year.
- For more information on borrowing privileges, visit: services.library.ubc.ca

COLLECTIONS

Great Reads collection
Discover new non-fiction and fiction books as part of the Library’s Great Reads collection. Available at multiple branch locations, explore genres such as Canadiana and popular best-sellers. Browse online: greatreads.library.ubc.ca

Videomatica
Make it a Videomatica night! With access to more than 28,000 DVDs, 4,000 VHS titles and 900 Blu-Rays, including cult favorites, Hollywood blockbusters and foreign films, there's no shortage of interesting titles to view from the comfort of your home or a Library branch. Select your movie list at: videomatica.library.ubc.ca

Multilingual newspapers and publications
Community users can access a number of multilingual newspapers and publications to keep updated on global news and to discover international treasures. Start your multilingual search online at: guides.library.ubc.ca/newspapers

Children’s books
The Education Library offers a range of books for children, including e-books, award-winning books and themed books on topics from dinosaurs to fairytales. Learn more at: education.library.ubc.ca

Open access resources
The Library offers many open access resources, available to anyone, regardless of whether they have a Library card: resources.library.ubc.ca

Open Collections
The Library’s Open Collections include digital photos, books, newspapers, maps, videos, theses and more. These publicly-accessible collections bring together locally created and managed content from the Library’s open access repositories. Featured collections are the Uno Langmann Family Collection of British Columbia Photographs, UBC’s First 100 Theses, and The Chung Collection. Explore now: open.library.ubc.ca

Rare and special collections
The Library is home to unique and special collections that are available on request, including:
- Wallace B. and Madeline H. Chung Collection and exhibition
- Uno Langmann Family Collection of B.C. Photographs
- Tremaine Arkley Croquet Collection
- Douglas Coupland archives

Children’s books
The Education Library offers a range of books for children, including e-books, award-winning books and themed books on topics from dinosaurs to fairytales. Learn more at: education.library.ubc.ca

Great Reads collection
Discover new non-fiction and fiction books as part of the Library’s Great Reads collection. Available at multiple branch locations, explore genres such as Canadiana and popular best-sellers. Browse online: greatreads.library.ubc.ca

Videomatica
Make it a Videomatica night! With access to more than 28,000 DVDs, 4,000 VHS titles and 900 Blu-Rays, including cult favorites, Hollywood blockbusters and foreign films, there's no shortage of interesting titles to view from the comfort of your home or a Library branch. Select your movie list at: videomatica.library.ubc.ca

Multilingual newspapers and publications
Community users can access a number of multilingual newspapers and publications to keep updated on global news and to discover international treasures. Start your multilingual search online at: guides.library.ubc.ca/newspapers

Children’s books
The Education Library offers a range of books for children, including e-books, award-winning books and themed books on topics from dinosaurs to fairytales. Learn more at: education.library.ubc.ca

Open access resources
The Library offers many open access resources, available to anyone, regardless of whether they have a Library card: resources.library.ubc.ca

Open Collections
The Library’s Open Collections include digital photos, books, newspapers, maps, videos, theses and more. These publicly-accessible collections bring together locally created and managed content from the Library’s open access repositories. Featured collections are the Uno Langmann Family Collection of British Columbia Photographs, UBC’s First 100 Theses, and The Chung Collection. Explore now: open.library.ubc.ca

Rare and special collections
The Library is home to unique and special collections that are available on request, including:
- Wallace B. and Madeline H. Chung Collection and exhibition
- Uno Langmann Family Collection of B.C. Photographs
- Tremaine Arkley Croquet Collection
- Douglas Coupland archives

Children’s books
The Education Library offers a range of books for children, including e-books, award-winning books and themed books on topics from dinosaurs to fairytales. Learn more at: education.library.ubc.ca

Great Reads collection
Discover new non-fiction and fiction books as part of the Library’s Great Reads collection. Available at multiple branch locations, explore genres such as Canadiana and popular best-sellers. Browse online: greatreads.library.ubc.ca

Videomatica
Make it a Videomatica night! With access to more than 28,000 DVDs, 4,000 VHS titles and 900 Blu-Rays, including cult favorites, Hollywood blockbusters and foreign films, there's no shortage of interesting titles to view from the comfort of your home or a Library branch. Select your movie list at: videomatica.library.ubc.ca

Multilingual newspapers and publications
Community users can access a number of multilingual newspapers and publications to keep updated on global news and to discover international treasures. Start your multilingual search online at: guides.library.ubc.ca/newspapers

Children’s books
The Education Library offers a range of books for children, including e-books, award-winning books and themed books on topics from dinosaurs to fairytales. Learn more at: education.library.ubc.ca