

Preservation Week at UBC Library | April 28 - May 2

Preservation Week aims to unite our communities through events and exhibits that highlight what we can do — individually and together — to preserve our personal and shared collections.

April 28

The Digitization Centre at UBC

Presented by Robert Stibravy, Digital Projects Librarian at
UBC

11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

April 29

Webinar: Preserving Family Archives

Presented by Karen Brown,
Conservator at SUNY Libraries

11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

May 1

Webinar: Preserving Scrapbooks

Presented by Melissa Tedone,
Conservator at Iowa State University Library

11 a.m. to 12 p.m.

May 1

Meet the Microbe: Why Water and Books Don't Mix

Presented by Karen Bartlett,
UBC Professor

12:30 p.m. to 1:30 p.m.

May 2

Inherent Vices: Internal Attributes of Objects Requiring Conservation

Presented by Anne Lama, UBC
Library Conservator

11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

All events in the Lillooet Room (301), 1961 East Mall,
Irving K. Barber Learning Centre

Bookbinding Exhibition

Learn more about the craft of bookmaking by visiting a display of bookbinding tools from UBC Library's *Dorothy
Burnett Bookbinding Tools
Collection*. On display in Rare
Books and Special Collections,
Level 1, Irving K. Barber
Learning Centre.

Opens May 26

M-F 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Personal Histories are Community Histories

We all have objects or items in our personal collections — from pictures of grandparents to heirlooms and jewelry. What do your collections mean to you?

Share your stories online and win a $25 giftcard
to the UBC bookstore!

Submissions until May 3

about.library.ubc.ca

Take care of our COLLECTIONS

our collections | our resources | our library

UBC Library

library.ubc.ca